JANUARY-MAY In-Community Events

Audiences Unlimited and our arts partners are offering tickets to the following events. Tickets are limited to 8 per facility with 1 wheelchair and 2 walkers included. At least one staff member must be present during the entire event. All evaluations must be up to date in order to receive tickets to events. Events held at the Arts United Center do not have space for wheelchairs. All residents in wheelchairs must be able to transfer to a regular seat.

Please use the form on our website to sign up for tickets.

Respond with your ticket request on our website under the "Sign Up for In-Community Events" link on the Partner Facilities pages. This form, like the evaluation form, requires you to sign in to your Audiences Unlimited account. Once submitted, Ayesha will contact you to confirm reservations.

Cinema's Golden Age-FW Philharmonic Embassy Theatre

Pianist Valentina Lisitsa looks back to the glory days of the silver screen, performing the Warsaw Concerto, plus music from Murder on the Orient Express, On Golden Pond and Pride & Prejudice.

February 13@7:30pm (pending availability)

Matilda The Musical-Civic Theatre Arts United Center *No wheelchair seating

Matilda is a little girl with astonishing wit and intelligence. While unloved by her cruel parents, she impresses her school teacher, the aptly named Miss Honey. Matilda and Miss Honey have a profound effect on each other's lives, as Miss Honey begins not only to recognize but also appreciate Matilda's extraordinary personality. Matilda's school life isn't completely smooth sailing as the school's mean headmistress, Miss Trunchbull, hates children and just loves thinking up new punishments for those who don't abide by her rules. But Matilda's courage, cleverness and special powers could be the students' saving grace!

Noises Off- Civic Theatre

Arts United Center *No wheelchair seating

In Noises Off the lights go up on the cast and crew of the fictional bedroom farce Nothing On the night before their opening. During the rehearsal the actors face the usual struggles with entrances, exits and getting props in the right place at the right time. However, as Noises Off unfolds, the challenges onstage are nothing compared to the drama off stage. Lines, props and pants are dropped as the company struggles with missed cues, fluffed lines, slamming doors, and romantic intrigue.
